

It is disgusting that a company can have such a monopoly on the media. They should not be allowed to continue unless they give (Fair and Balanced) time for the other side. This is not the democratic way. And we are supposed to be teaching the world with dirty tricks like this. Darlene